The Fourth Sunday of Epiphany

“The spirit of the Lord is upon me,
Because he has anointed me

To proclaim good news to the poor.” (Luke 4:18)

When someone is made a bishop in the Episcopal Church in America they are asked,

“Will you boldly proclaim the Gospel of Christ, enlightening the minds and stirring up the conscience of your people?”

This week Bishop Mariann Budde asked the most powerful person in her country to show mercy towards the most powerless.

May we all continue to love others and have the courage to stand up for what is right.

Revd Christine McAteer

B30 and South Birmingham Foodbank

Many thanks for all your donations throughout 2024. We have seen a record level of demand this year, but donations, both food and financial, have managed to keep up with the need. Those who donate food regularly, please could we ask you to take a break until the beginning of February, as our warehouse is full to bursting just now - the general giving in December has far outstripped the same period in 2022 and 2023. Please keep the Clients, Trustees, Managers and all team members in your prayers.

“Private Library” - we now have a bookstall of quality used Christian books at the back of St Nicolas. Priced at £2 for hardbacks and £1 for softbacks, you can choose to purchase and keep your book, or regard the money as a subscription to a private library and bring the book back after reading, ready for another person to pay-to-read or purchase. Donations can go in any of the donations boxes in church or via the card reader.

Flowers in St. Nicolas Church – would anyone like to pay for (or give a donation towards) the flowers on Sundays 9th or 23rd February

We are needing help with people to join the Welcomers Team and/or Coffee Rota, please speak to Mark Sandilands, call or message the Parish Office .
