

Thought for the Day

Happy New Year!

To help us start this year with God's help, I'd like to remind you of an old custom of chalking the door. This is a way of giving an epiphany blessing to our church and our homes and to all who live and visit them. It is also an invitation for Jesus to be a daily guest in our home, our comings and goings, our conversations, our work and play, our joys and sorrows. We use the letters C, M and B to reflect the names of the wise men but also the letters of the Latin blessing Christus mansionem benedicat 'May Christ bless the house'. So we chalk C+M+B+26 above our door

Marking the doorway to one's home is rooted in the Bible - check Exodus 12:7 and Deuteronomy 6:4-6,9.

You may like to use this prayer as you chalk your door.

O God of Light, bless this house and this family. May this be a place of peace and health. May each member of this home cultivate the gifts and graces you have given us, dedicating our talents and works for the good of all.

Make this place a shelter in the storm and a haven of rest for all in need of your warmth and care. May all who come and go here find healing, refreshment and new life through Jesus. And when we go out from this place, may we never lose sight of your light. As we go about our work, our study, our play, keep us faithful and make us witnesses to your love. AMEN

Please Remember in your prayers:

Mason Green, Paul Cowley, Siobhan and Darlene, June McCoy, Pauline Wells, Joyce Hancock, Maureen Black, Steven Fearon, Greta Lacey, Gabriella Young, Matthew Coulter, Margaret Roper, Eddie Matthews, Mary Barnes, Kate Charalambous, Donald Bullas, Fiona Fendick, Kath Baylis, David Hanson, Lyn Taylor, Angela Brady, Don and Family, Lorraine Langdon and Darcey.

Those Who have died and those who grieve for them: Leigh Matthews.
